

JAF

Enjoy Safe Driving in Japan

For Safe Driving

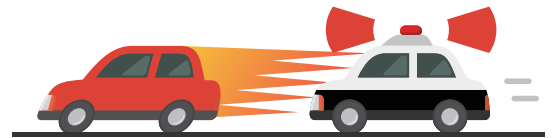

When you see this sign, STOP!

●Always stop before the stop line where this sign appears.

Follow the legal and safe speed

●Speeding can lead to accidents.

●Speed limit signs in Japan are displayed in kilometers, not miles.

●Speeding violations will result in fines.

(50km=31Miles)

Driving under the influence of alcohol is severely punished in Japan

Driving under the influence of alcohol is subject to substantial fines.

- ✗ Just a few drinks
- ✗ Leftover alcohol the day after drinking
- ✗ Offering alcohol to the driver
- ✗ Providing a car/vehicle with the knowledge that the driver has been drinking
- ✗ Riding in a car/vehicle knowing that the driver has been drinking

Alcohol concentration per liter of breath	Driver fines	Provider/passengers fines
0.15 mg to less than 0.25 mg	Less than ¥500,000	Less than ¥300,000
0.25 mg or more	Less than ¥1,000,000	Less than ¥500,000

More information on driving in Japan

The official JAF website provides driving information in English.

Calling for road service

[JAF road service information]

<https://english.jaf.or.jp/call-road-service/call-jaf>

Learning more about Japanese traffic rules

[Foreign language version of Rules of the Road]

<https://english.jaf.or.jp/safe-driving/traffic-rules-in-japan>

Applying for a Japanese translation of your driver's license

[Online application for Japanese translation]

<https://english.jaf.or.jp/driving-in-japan/drive-in-japan/about-dltas>

JAF